

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Policy

Introduction

The Corporate Social Responsibility (hereinafter referred to as 'CSR') Policy governs SGS India Private Limited and its social initiatives and activities in India. SGS uses its scale and expertise to enable a more sustainable future and ensures that it minimises its impact on the environment throughout the value chain. With a purpose to enable a better, safer and more interconnected world, SGS India concentrates its social interventions and actions to solve important problems in society and enabling communities and economies to prosper. While it strives to deliver excellence in business, it wholeheartedly contributes towards being a part of positive societal change.

The Company supports various projects permitted under relevant provisions of CSR regulations, as applicable for the time being in force. It aims to develop the required capability and self-reliance of beneficiaries at the grass roots, especially of women, in the strong belief that these are the critical cornerstones that define social and economic development of a society. It provides assistance to organisations engaged in driving positive change in society to help them reach and deliver their full potential. Lastly, it contributes to creating stronger and more inclusive communities.

SGS India implements its CSR interventions through (i) Company personnel, or (ii) external implementing agencies and partners from the public and private sectors. It encourages its employees to volunteer and fundraise, and supports their efforts to make a difference.

This is an affiliate-level policy, which respects and embraces the pillars of the global corporate policies applicable such as the Corporate Sustainability Principles and the Global Community Policy.

This policy is also in line with Section 135 of the Companies Act 2013, as enacted in the Republic of India. Section 135 of the Companies Act 2013 is applicable to every company, including its holding or subsidiary, and foreign companies having its branch or project office in India and with net worth of INR 500cr (INR 5bn) or more, or a turnover of INR 1000cr (INR 10bn) or more, or a net profit of INR 5cr (INR50m) or more during any of the three preceding financial years. Under this section of the Companies Act 2013, in every financial year, such company must allocate at least 2% of its average net profits made during the 3 immediately preceding financial years. The Company must also constitute a CSR committee and Executive committee, formulate a CSR policy, recommend CSR expenditure amount, monitor policies and activities, and report to the Chairperson. Chairperson must approve the CSR policy; and include the CSR Report in its Annual Report (Annexure 2).
